"Centre for Cities - UoM Urban Lab" is an interdisciplinary research arm of the University of Moratuwa. It draws together the research and outreach energies of scholars of architecture, urban design, planning, conservation, environment management, transportation, construction, facilities management, housing, landscape, real estate, land use surveying, urban economics, statistical modeling, urban studies, Information Technology, engineering and related areas. "UoM Urban Lab" is anchored by the researchers in the University of Moratuwa and provides a focus for urban researchers across the university and with the international collaborative university partners.

It organizes the international urban design conference known as the ICCPP conference on 'Cities, People and Places'. It also publishes the 'Cities people places' journal.

Centre for Cities also houses the ISVS secretariate and publishes the ISVS e-journal. Dr. Ranjith Dayaratne, who is an external member of the Centre for Cities manages the ISVS secretariate and its activities including the editing of the ISVS e-journal.
