Dear Professor Ranjith Dayaratne,

I am writing to submit our manuscript titled "The Architectural and Cultural Significance of the Courtyard House Museum: A Case Study of the Fayzulla Khodjaev House Museum in Bukhara" for consideration for publication in the ISVS e-journal.

The paper investigates the spatial organisation, seasonal adaptation, and interior decorative wall paintings of traditional courtyard house museums in Bukhara.

I confirm that this manuscript is original and is not currently under consideration elsewhere. Please find the manuscript in Microsoft Word format attached to this email.

Thank you for your time and consideration of our work.

Sincerely,

Yulduz M. Kalonova

Dear Professor Ranjith Dayaratne,

Thank you very much for your kind confirmation and for updating my email address in your system. I truly appreciate your continuous support throughout this process.

As requested, I am very pleased to submit the thoroughly revised version of our manuscript (Manuscript ID: ISVSej_13.05.09_Kalonova) along with this message. We have spent the last few days carefully addressing every single point in your evaluation report with great care and dedication.

Dear Yulduz,

Thank you for submitting the revised version of your paper. I am sorry to disappoint you in saying that the revision did not 'beautifully' meet the standards of the journal as you expected.

In fact, the revisions fell far short of the review instructions. Hence, the revised version has been reviewed again, by another reviewer. This time, it used track change comments made in the document itself to facilitate more specific revisions.

Please find the review 2 attached as a track change commented document. Your paper has been lined up to be published in the ISVS e-journal Vol. 13 issue 5 as the paper No 5, and hence its ID number has changed. However, this would be possible only if:

1. The paper is revised again in response to the Review 2 attached
2. The final revised version is submitted by the 27th September 2026.
3. The final revised version addresses all issues and is evaluated as meeting the standards of the ISVS e-journal.

We look forward to hearing from you by 27th September 2027 with the revision or before this date if there is any issue,

Dear Professor Ranjith Dayaratne,

Thank you very much for your continuous guidance. We have successfully and thoroughly addressed all specific suggestions provided by Reviewer 2 in this final track-change document.

In strict accordance with the instructions, the Abstract and Introduction have been re-conceptualized to properly introduce the socio-cultural, architectural, and memorial value of the museum before discussing microclimatic features. Furthermore, Section 5 has been enhanced with deep historical baseline details regarding Fayzulla Khodjaev's biography, family narrative, domestic behavioral patterns, internal museum artifacts, and socio-spatial practices. Finally, the Discussion and Conclusion sections have been fully harmonized to reflect this memorial character, and the References section has been completely revised with verified full DOI links.

The final revised manuscript is now attached in Word format for your kind approval and publication in Vol. 13 Issue 5.
