Dear Ranjith Dayaratne

I am writing to submit our manuscript entitled "Navigating the Familiar: Unraveling Handiwirman's Artistic Language" for consideration for publication in the ISVS e-journal. This manuscript has not been published and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Our study explores Handiwirman's artistic language, using familiar objects to serve a new way of thinking about regular objects. We believe that our findings provide significant insights into the method of the aesthetic of familiarity that aligns with your journal's scope.

We have followed the journal's author guidelines and have included all required documentation.

Please find attached our manuscript. We appreciate your consideration of our work and look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the ISVS e-journal.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Nofrizaldi

Dear Nofrizaldi,

Thank you for your interest in the ISVS e-journal which is reviewed thoroughly. The journal is open access. We do not reject papers unless the paper is beyond any development. We help the authors to bring the papers up to the standards expected. Your paper falls well within the scope of the journal.

It will therefore go to review and if accepted for publication, the paper can be published in August 2024 or thereabouts.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Ranjith

Dear Nofrizaldi,
Please find attached a review of your paper. It needs major revisions. Please respond to each comment of the two reviewers carefully.

Revise and save the revised file as 'ISVSej_11.03.X_ Nofrizaldi revised'. Send me the word copy in 10 days or so.

Please download the guidelines for writing the review of literature from the website and follow it. Make sure that the file size is below 1MB for an e-journal.

Please confirm that you will revise the paper on time so that a slot can be allocated in the ISVS e-journal Vol. 11.03 to be published in March 2024.
